VA Dressage Association Central Chapter

March 2019

President's Letter

Our 2019 has begun! Riders at Oakdale Equestrian Center received their first scores of the year as the weather held off until the end. Bravo to all who made that first show of the year. In the coming weeks, our Chapter has both educational and competition opportunities to get you ready for Dressage at the Meadow!

Sponsorships and vendor opportunities are shaping up for our annual favorite licensed show, Dressage at the Meadow. As a member, you can sponsor an award and earn a volunteer hour. You can earn volunteer hours. You and a friend can go in together to sponsor a class or award. Let's make it happen!! As always, our show needs your support both at show time and through sponsorships. If you know of a business owner, artist, saddle fitter, tack shop, equine service, etc. please tell them of our special show, the visibility this show can bring to their specialty or trade, and invite them to contact us. Shanda King and Jane Walker, Competition Committee Co-Chairs are ready to assist. You can forward the contact information to our show committee and we can reach out. Let's reach out to sponsor and step up to volunteer to make our 12th annuals how a great show!

New Tests Clinic: Plan to attend our 2019 New Tests Clinic on March 17th at Oakdale Equestrian Center with Debbie Rodriguez as our guest clinician. Auditor and rider spots are available. If you want to apply to be a part of the ridden portion of the clinic, please complete the form attached herein. Auditors and Riders should both register and complete waivers to attend. Thank you, Terry Adcock, for your hospitality in allowing us to host our educational day at Oakdale.

Musical Freestyle Clinic: Members interested in exploring Musical Freestyles or enhancing their present skills, Tara Dean and other VADACC members who fancy dancing on horseback will meet at Dabney Mill Equestrian Center on March 30. Marie Taylor will confirm the date as it gets closer. Tara will help you find what music works with your horse and help you with the what to look for in a music selection. This clinic will offer an enjoyable opportunity to learn about riding to music, whether you want to pursue Musical Freestyles for competition or enjoyment.

Hopefully the skies will clear for our first sanctioned schooling shows of the year. Check out our Calendar of Events. Support the hosts of our sanctioned shows. Plan to use the scores you earn at our sanctioned show to qualify in our 2019 VADACC Championship Schooling Show.

Our energetic 2019 VADACC Board is setting the stage for a great year for our Chapter members.

Good Luck! Respectfully, Susan

Bethany Larsen ~ Welcome to VADACC

by Susan Ellis

Bethany Larsen and Lynda McCann are two of VADACC's newest members. In January 2018 they moved to Virginia from New Hampshire and began building their dream, Topline Dressage. Topline Dressage is located on a picturesque 20 acre farm in Powhatan, VA, offering boarding, training, and lessons and featuring a competition size dressage arena. Collectively these ladies have brought years of dressage skill and talent to our area. Welcome!

Bethany Larsen, a USDF Bronze and Silver Medalist, has been chosen to be the dressage clinician at the 2019 Virginia Horse Festival. She will be offering demonstrations and dressage clinics during the three day event May 3-5, 2019.

Bethany's unwavering response to the question, "What do you want to be when you grow up?" was always "a horse trainer." Her first experience with riding came when she was 7. Already a horse-crazed girl, she went to an overnight horse camp with glee and cried when it was time to leave. For the next several years she went to this camp one week per summer starting out with riding Western (as was their custom with every beginner rider) and then moving on to hunt seat. She always had a preference of English riding as she felt it allowed the rider to be more connected with the horse. plus the tack was smaller and lighter! Many people are attracted to jumping because of the adrenaline and thrill of flying over obstacles, Bethany, however, was attracted to dressage because of the beauty and artistry of the refined, finessed movements and the ability of the rider to invisibly ask for all of these breathtaking and difficult tasks with seemingly no resistance or refusal of the horse. Harmony. Truly dancing with a horse. In middle school she started taking weekly dressage lessons and from there she was hooked. It was through a mutual acquaintance Bethany got her first horse, a Tennessee Walking Horse. She tried her hand at the breed rail classes, but it never had the same personal appeal for her as dressage. Thus she took her Walking Horse into gaited dressage.

Bethany's second horse was a Morgan cross. It was with this horse, she travelled to NC for her first dressage working student position. She trained with Eliza Sydnor for a year (Eliza Sydnor, as a young rider twice led the Olympic Dream Trip sponsored by the Dressage Foundation.) and within that time span spent seven weeks in Wellington, FL working for JJ Tate. She then moved north to New Hampshire and worked with Mary Howard. It was in this 3.5 year time period that Bethany says she learned and improved exponentially from this Olympic Short-listed rider/trainer. (For our younger readers, Mary Howard had many national titles as a dressage rider, was short listed for the 1988 Olympics, won the Pan Am Games, and was 4th in the World Championships.)

Per Bethany, "Mary had mastered the art of instruction as I became her hands and feet on the horses we had in training. Backing and showing several, I earned my Bronze and Silver medals in two years as I sailed into the FEI Levels of dressage.

Bethany Larsen, con't

I was 25 when I earned the remaining scores to get both my medals in one weekend. My most notable mount was an OTTB who became an ambassador for Thoroughbreds in dressage, successfully showing and winning through Intermediare 1. I love Thoroughbreds for their big hearts, athleticism, desire to work, and lovely energy. It is no surprise that this breed was used to create and improve the modern day warmblood. In my barn currently I have a range of ages and breeds which all have something unique to bring to the table. My RPSI mare with her sweet demeanor has come from unbroken to schooling PSG in 4 short years. At my barn you will also find a German Riding Pony, another pony showing at 2nd Level, a 4yo Friesian, and a coming 2yo Oldenburg. I strongly believe that no matter what age, breed, or current discipline, every horse and rider can benefit from learning the tried and true classic principles of dressage to further enhance the strength, balance, harmony, and knowledge of the pair."

Bethany met her business partner, Lynda Mc-Cann, at Mary Howard's barn in NH. With Lynda's family relocating to VA to escape the long winters up north, she decided to follow and live out her dream of owning and running a horse farm. Bethany came along with her to live out her dream of that girl who wanted to be a horse trainer. Through all the handson education and experience she gained from being a working student, Bethany is passing along her knowledge to the horses and riders in her program. In addition to offering horse boarding, lessons, and training, they have an upper level schoolmaster available for those without a horse or those wanting to work on themselves on a horse who knows more than they. They have stalls and openings available. Bethany is available to take her students to shows or assist with buying and selling horses. She is also available to give clinics or off-site lessons.

Bethany's words of motivation and encouragement for any rider with aspirations to move up the levels is to "never overlook the basics. The upper level movements come easy to horse and rider if the basics are established and established well. With the ability to keep the horse between all your aids without force or brute strength, the upper levels are possible for everyone. But always keep the physical and mental health of your horse as the highest priority."

As the Dressage Clinician at the Virginia Horse Festival this May, Bethany is offering low-cost clinics to riders all three days. Rides are offered at $50. All levels will be accepted. These clinics will be focused on the needs of the particular horse and rider pair and taught in a way the those in the audience can see and understand what is being said and why. Also on all three days she will be doing a demonstration on her FEI horse, bringing the spectators into one of her everyday schooling rides on her. She will be stating what it is she is looking for in the warm-up and working phases of her ride. As she schools the upper-level movements she will relate what was done well and why, what was done poorly and why, and give exercises to implement to improve.

Bethany and Lynda, welcome to Virginia and thank you for joining VADACC!!
